

Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation Weekly News Update

August 31, 2020 to September 4, 2020

Please see below for some recent interesting articles on extreme weather and climate adaptation, as well as media featuring the Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation. If you would like to subscribe to the weekly news update, please email Intact Centre Manager, Taylor Legere, at tbleger@uwaterloo.ca.

External Media Features

Flood

- Fort McMurray Today, Sept 2: Province announces \$8.5 million for flood mitigation project
- CBC, Aug 8: Flooding worries rise for some as Churchill River system hits highest peak on record

Natural Infrastructure

- Forbes, Sept 3: Climate Change And The Circular Economy
- Science Daily, Sept 4: The potential of green infrastructure in mitigating flood impacts: Focused on the mobility of low income and minority communities

Wildfire

- CBC, Sept 1: The 'fire paradox': Study suggests ways we fight northern wildfires could be increasing fire risk
- CBC, Aug 29: Environment Canada warns of high levels of air pollution amid multiple wildfires in western N.S.

Urban Heat

- The Weather Network, Aug 31: Strong tornadoes, waterspout outbreaks, extreme heat made August stand out
- CNBC, Sept 4: Dangerous heat wave to hit California over weekend as wildfires still burn

Capital Markets

- Daily Commercial News, Sept 4: McKinsey climate study a warning to asset owners: author
- Globe and Mail, Aug 31: Globe Climate: Finance and investing can't self-isolate from climate change
- Journal Pioneer, Sept 2: Germany raises 6.5 billion euros from first-ever green bond

Social Justice and Resilience

- Climate Home News, Sept 2: Centre for women-led climate adaptation breaks ground in Uganda
- Canadian Manufacturing, Sept 2: Climate change considered the most extreme issue Canada currently faces despite COVID-19: study

Recent ICCA Media Features

- Observer, Sept 3: We're not preparing fast enough for increased flood risk